

Embody™ Task Chair

Bill Stumpf & Jeff Weber for Herman Miller, 2008

Designed specifically for people who sit at computers, Embody™ makes you feel like you're floating. It promotes health-positive sitting, creating harmony between you and your computer to help you focus on your work and think more clearly. In fact, it's the first work chair that supports your body and your mind. Embody is MBDC Cradle to Cradle Silver certified and GREENGUARD certified; Embody can also provide credits for LEED certification. Embody is 95 percent recyclable, has 42 percent recycled content, and contains no PVCs.
